Manager Named At WROV

Bernard Mann

Bernard Mann of New York has become manager of radio station WROV.

The 27-year-old radio man is a native of New York and a graduate of Adelphi College. He has been sales manager of WTRY in Troy, N.Y., has worked at WAKE in Atlanta and is former manager of WEAV in Plattsburgh, N.Y.

Burt Levin, WROV president, said the naming of Mann is a part of the firm's expansion program in conjunction with expansion of facilities in its Richmond station, WEET. J. P. Morgan, formerly on the WROV sales force, is now station manager in Richmond, succeeding Ted Court, now national manager of Miss Teen America, a Richmond girl.

Mann came to Roanoke in July and is joining the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife live at 2412 Crystal Spring Ave., SW.
