

15 Vie For Jr. Miss

Beginning at 10 a.m. tomorrow, 15 Botetourt County girls will compete for the title of Botetourt's Junior Miss. The winner will be announced about 9:30 p.m. at Breckinridge School in Fincastle, where the pageant is to be held.

Dan Alexander, WROV disc jockey, will emcee the pageant program, which begins at 7:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Alexander, who joined WROV Radio last December, has worked in Texas, Georgia and North Carolina as well as his native Missouri. He served three years in the U.S. Army, including a year as an information officer in Vietnam.

The pageant, sponsored by the Botetourt Jaycees, requires the girls to be judged on personal interviews with judges, poise, talent and youth fitness as well as other categories.

The interviews will be held tomorrow morning at Tinker Mountain Motor Lodge.
