New staff addition at WROV. Terry Young is our new 7-mid personality, and will handle music research. Also Terry is in charge of albums. This will be a big help to me, as I'll more time to devote to our regular playlist and auditioning singles.

Speaking of singles... I understand from talking to Mickey Turntable last week (in fact, the same day last weeks sheet went to the printer) that Stir It Up was released as a single that very day. It immediately crossed over into our singles rotation and jumped to #13 this week. I suggest that Epic gets move on because there's not a single of it to be had anywhere in Roanoke.

As many of you have found out, I'm kind of hard to get in touch with. For right now, you can count on me being in the station and available on Wednesday, from 6AM to noon, or a little after. Soon as possible I'll work the schedule to be in a day or two more, and in the
